The Shenandoah is on a routine mission to the Chinese border to secure the Chinese coast. As the two armies are engaged in battle on a routine patrol, they find themselves facing off with the Chinese military that is led by Admiral Wu Shang in combat with Captain Chen Dong. The Chinese military has deployed the first fleet of its kind. This force is made up entirely of warships and aircraft, with only a few transports and transport vessels. The Shenandoah makes its first combat contact with the Chinese forces and, as they are attempting to destroy two major warships, are forced to withdraw, leaving the other forces to defend the port. The Chinese naval forces begin to prepare to strike back at the Shenandoah. At the same time, the Russians have begun to withdraw from China and begin to construct a force of warships to defend their homeland. the pursuit of happiness tamil dubbed

Washington departs, leaving the Chinese navy. With the Americans leaving, however, it is up to China, the sole surviving U.S.S. Shenandoah, to fight for its survival. As the war between China and China drags on, the Chinese navy is heavily reduced as they are forced to surrender large part of their force but do not face the U.S.S. Washington alone..
